Trustee's Comments

Don Hodson mentioned that this would be the final budget workshop for the 2017 budget. No changes have been made to Township Assistance, Parks, or the Fire Department since the last workshop

Township General

Josie Conrad presented the changes to the third draft of the proposed 2017 Township General budget.

Rainy Day Fund

Don Hodson discussed the Rainy Day Fund and its use for 2017. Part of the money would also be going to balance out the retirement funds for the merit fire fighters that are switching over to the 77 Fund in 2017.

Fire Department (inc. Cumulative Fund)

A discussion was held in regards to the part-time support services position. Fred Palmer objected to retaining a part-time person for the position. Doug Elmore also expressed opposition to the position and Don Hodson indicated that it would be removed from the budget.

Public Assistance

Monica Bales discussed the legality of the assistance program giving out clothing vouchers. Burlington is willing to work with the assistance program to provide vouchers.
